QUIET STUDY IN THE LIBRARY

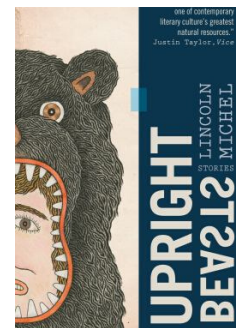

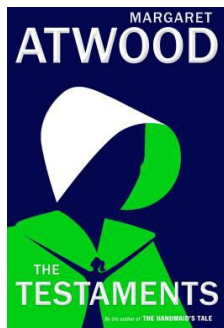

The library has purchased new furniture to create more dedicated quiet study areas in the cellar level.

We will still have plenty of group study areas and space for students working together. Look for signs around the library indicating what volume is appropriate for each area.

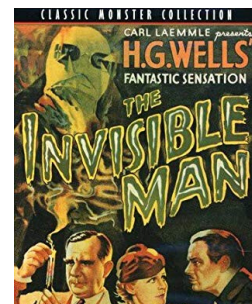

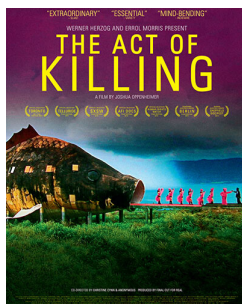

NEW BOOKS

Looking for a good read? Take a look at the library's selection of new books. We have even more new books on display in the library lobby!

NEW FILMS

We also have a wide selection of new DVDs available in the library. Come check them out!
